Well, it's different ones. Jimmy Belvin he-he's the printipal one course they have other mbers, you know, some maybe in McAlester, Muskogee. These other office holders, you know, maybe outa Muskogee.

CHIEF RLECTIONS:

(Have you voted for chiefs?)
Huh?
(Have you ah, got to vote when the chief's elected?)
I don't know whether I have or not, you know, I don'.t remember. But I gụess I have. Like it's doné now. They have votong there-"you can vote any way you want.

They have blanks you can fill out. You can vote any way you want to.
(You know Choctaws have elected. You know they've had people vote for their chief's. for quite a long time where some of the tribes that it-it was just passed down, you know. The fater was a chief and the son was gonna be a chief. Very much like royalty. Kings from other countries.)
I don't know how this comes bout. I don't know what-I ain't-he appointed by the "f -president. (unin.) Ain'c heaappointed by the president or somethin' like that. I think- : $\quad+\quad$.
(think the President approves it after the members of the tribe belect him or dect him.) $\quad 7$

Maybe so. I an't know just how that is.
(Do you think most of them will they want to sell the land other than holding that amoung?)

I think the majority of them will.
(Did you get any idea of how much per capita payment they'd get out of it?)
Weil, it won't be too mech. I just heard though, course nobody knows, yet. Maytes get a $$ 100$. And/ that'll be about it. You see all these officeholders and everythin. like that is gettin all this money. You know. And these schools and then some of us get/nothin'. Big part of that money.
(Worider how may officeholders you have?)
I dop't know. There's lots of em. though. Libe Jimm Belving He.gets lot of that
