

(Uh-huh.)

Yeah, I guess it was an Indian school over there. Spencer Academy. North of Saper.

(North of Saper.)

Huh?

(North of Saper, you said?)

Yeah.

(When--about when were you there?)

Huh?

(About how old were you when you went to Spencer?)

Oh, I don't remember. It's been so long.

(Pop went to Spencer, didn't you?)

POP: No.

(No.)

POP: It was my half-brother. Old Specner was up close to Antlers. North of Antlers.

(Old Spencer was north of Antlers and then they moved it down here north of Saper.)

Yeah that was--(unin).

(Was was your half-brother's name?)

POP: Lee McClure.

(Lee McClure. Was he older than you?)

Yeah.

(Lee McClure. Pop says he was a half brother that went to Spencer.)

Yeah.

(Did you tell me when you were born?)

Yeah, I--July 10, 1880.

(1880.)

Uh-huh. I'll be 87, July the 10th. This next month. I got pretty little garden for 87 years old.

(You sure do. You've got a nice place here.)
