

POP: Chukfi kosoma.

Oh, that's goat, you know.

(Yeah.)

Issi kowoma that's goat. Chukfi knosoma, chukfi is just sheep.

(Sheep.)

Um-hum.

(Say it again. Sheep, say it again?)

Chukfi.

POP: That's rabbit.

What's that?

POP Chukfi is rabbit. idn't it?

Chukfilluma is a rabbit and just same thing. Chukfi is a sheep and a rabbit is about the same thing. Gettin' hot weather now, idn't it?

(It really is. You got some nice shade trees though.)

Yeah, but it don't do me any good. It's too far back.

(You just have to come over here, you know.)

In the--in the mornin's all right, just all long time.

DIFFERENT TOWNS:

Then along about twelve they begin to sunshine a little bit. The line used to run along about here. Even with that highway, you know. This supposed to be alley.

This is . . . But it goes to that fence you know. Nobody don't go that way. I just plant trees and blackberries there. Good use of it. Yeah, they told me I could plant anything I want in that alley over there on the other side of that corn. And that's where I had my garden this year. Irish potatoes. Garden stuff and tomatoes and so on. Just keep it down you know. Just to high a weeds.

(You --well don't you think we've had more rain than you usually do?)

Umphum.

(Things are green this year. Kinda pretty.)

Yeah, seems like I got big lot cross this alley go with it, you know. And -- you know one day, first made allotment. When a town was beginnin' you know there was a big lot.
