

West of Wewoka about two miles.

(And you farmed there and went to school at Nobletown.)

Yes sir.

(How many brothers and sisters did you have Mr. McIntosh?)

Oh Lawsy! I'll have to take time out to count 'em. Let's see: one, two, three, four, five, six, seven, had six sisters and one brother.

(Are any of them living today?)

Yes sir, two of 'em are living.

(Do they live in Seminole county?)

Yes sir. Yes sir, they live in Wewoka.

(What are their names?)

My oldest sister name Esther.

(What's her last name?)

That's her last--Esther Vester McIntosh. I mean Esther McIntosh, but she's married to a Long.

(Yes sir, uh huh, and what about your--)

And the other one is uh--Lessa McGee; her name was Cudjo, Lessa Cudjo.

(Uh huh, and they both live in Wewoka?)

Yes sir, one lives on de new addition, one lives there in Wewoka.

(Mr. McIntosh, what do you remember--can you just talk for awhile about life, your life, as you were growing up; as far back as you can remember; the people you know; the things you did; any schooling you had after Nobletown; when you had your first job and how life was, generally, in Seminole county--this was the Seminole Nation at that time.)

Yeah, at that time. Well, Lord O'Mighty it's such a big change til--the fellow says, I can't remember it all.

Well, I remember dis, If you'll allow me to say that--about the first chief that I knowed anything about. Will that be all right?

(Yes sir.)

Well, the first chief that I knew anything about, when I got big enough to know, I guess I was 8-10 years old, his name was John Jumper. Now they used to have
