

(What was the name of your sister that went to Atoka?)

Oceanna Carnes.

(Oceanna? Oceanna Carnes?)

Yes. She married Carnes. Solomon Carnes.

(Oh. So Solomon Carnes would be your brother-in-law?)

Uh-huh.

(Yeah. That's the one I was asking you about. I guess Nancy - and you are Nancy's cousin? Nancy Johnson's cousin?)

Uh-huh. -----Not clear-----Jim is my nephew.

(Does the girl stay with you all day.)

No. Half a day.

(I guess she's done now.)

See her leave?

(Yeah. I guess she is gone. Does she live close to you?)

Three miles north of here.

(Three miles? Is there a settlement out there where she lives?)

Yeah. Alvin Carnes - he lives close.

(Close to you?)

Close to this girl.

(Oh. How does she get here to help you?)

How she get here?

(uh-huh.)

In a car.

(In a car? Does she drive a car?)

You see a car out there?

(Yeah, there's a car still out there. Well, I'm glad that you got somebody to help you.)

Yeah. In the daytime it's all right.
