

(These two head--)

No, on us. On all of us. Each one, one at a time get up and go to the other side too and like that and go sit down. By the time they sit down it's all dried.

(What was the meaning of this do you know?)

Just--it goes with the ceremony in there. Anyway, then we sit down, and then we got in a wagon when we start.

Mrs. Osborne: Now that's just you in there. You and the doctors in there.

Yeah, all the doctors in there. They getting ready.

4. MANY DOCTORS PARTICIPATE

(This is just the doctors getting ready for the ceremony?)

Yeah. Little over half there, and they name them to come in and listen and look on you know. And we all ready now. Everybody ready. And these old folks over there, old man, Old Man Taylor, High Eagle, Old Man (name not clear) there's another one I don't know. I was thinking last night who it was. Anyway the old folks you know the eight, eight big pools of mud like, eight of them on each side. Oh, about that big and right between there that's where the old folks sit. And then when we ready--

Mrs. Osborne: About half way down in it.

Yeah, when we all ready, well that head man sayd, some folks want to have name change maybe a little baby, or little boy or girl, even grown-ups, you know, that's about older people and about 10 years old maybe like that, they want name change like that, well they announce it in there.

(Now this is after the people have come in.)

5. DOCTOR DANCE IS FOR SICK PEOPLE - SING SONGS

Yeah, to take part. They get one of the old mans over there like Old Man Roberts--you know George--you know, for good luck, songs, and they get old man Taylor to get up and take the ones out.

Mrs. Osborne: Out by the east door.
