Mrs. Osborne: That's that old lady--that's some old lady's name isn't it. (Pawnee name).

But that's the one old man--use to see about that man (Pawnee name) may be that's the one they give to the old man--and be like him you know.

Mrs. Osborne: Like seeing them, like you saying who got them to sit up there you know, them two head man you know, the old man, Sun Eagle, he had that dance. And so I imagine he got one of these others too, that had dance. (Pawnee words) have to be one of them that start the dance you know. (Pawnee words not clear) the dance.

(For instance you say Old Man Sun Eagle, he might choose maybe like for instance John Roman--)

Yeah, like that. Say Old Man Sun Eagle he get Henry Shooter.

(Did Henry Shooter have it too?)

No.

Mrs. Osborne: You remember that time they had it I believe that was about the last one--I believe that was the last.

(This was about when Mom, approximately?) .

Mrs. Osborne: Oh, let me see. I don't remember, Rolan would be in Carnegie School that time so he would have to be round about—he was born in '22 so he would be in his early 30's.

(And that's when they had the last Doctor Dance that you--and this was held out south at old man Hotter's place?).

Yeah, that's right. The same way that old man Young, well he had that one. Like old man Sun Eagle. Well, old man Young he had (Pawnee word), that's the one. Old man Young when had had that he use to have William Sutton to help him. And old man Blue Hawk, he use to get John Blue Hawk.

Mrs. Osborne: Now Old Man Blue Hawk, I just barely remember him.

Mrs. Osborne: Now Old Man Blue Hawk, I just barely remember him.

And Old man Davis.

Mrs. Osborne: He was James father.

(James Davis -- was that his name?)

Blue, Hawk. (Pawnee word) Indian name. Yeah. He the one had they call
