

just straight food. You know meat, cornbread, coffee, soup, that's all.

(Did you say now that right there at the very beginning that you started talking about this doctor dance that you indicated that these two head men were on the outside and they were to let the men on the inside know when it was getting near sunset?)

Near dark.

(And when this time came, was this when the performers began to get ready?)

Yeah, just about the time we all get ready, it dark. And them two at the door they smoke pipe, them two headmen inside, they hold them--smoking pipe in there, them two headmen inside, they stand by the door, they know lot of people this side and a lot of peoples this side and they want nobody cross this way.

Mrs. Osborne: They can't stand in doorway. They keep it all clear there.

(This is on the outside?)

Yeah, that hallway you know. All clear on the outside, lot of people and then when not nobody to cross, hold them back you know, when that's over with--say it's over they could hear it out there and they let them in. Oh, they just rush in there.

Mrs. Osborne: Oh, they just be pushing in to get their place.

Finally get in there. Lot of people.

Mrs. Osborne: Oh, there's lot of people in there, just running against one another.

DRESS IN TENT AND RETURN TO TENT AFTER CEREMONY

(And then what about after the entire ceremony was completely finished Grant, after you were dismissed, did you get dressed again, in this same building where the ceremony went?)

No, we had our own camp, tent.

(Was this also where you also got ready?)

We got tent at camp. We change in the camp you know and go get a blanket and are you ready to go in there. Ready to go you go in there. You get ready in
