

T-230

Index side B, first part.

Recording time: 8 minutes

Informant:

Wilburn Battie, 88-year-old full blood Cherokee, Hulbert, Oklahoma.

Mr. Battie is presently a patient in the Monholland Nursing Home, in Tahlequah, Oklahoma, and is not well enough to give a good interview.

Subject:

Mr. Battie was visited in the hope that he could give the manner and method of treating poison snake bites. He is remembered by many Cherokees as an Indian Snake Doctor and an authority on the treatment of poison snake bites.
