

When I got up there he said, "Don't look back. I'm going to open my mouth. You walk out of me and just go on. Don't look back, just keep going till you come to foot of the hill. It's a high hill." I walk so far till I got up there. When you look way down in the valley there's some trees, lot of trees. And there some Indian tents. And there some tipis, sitting down there. And there's the light down there. I walk down there. Got up on the hill and there was the light down there. That's the one that I went down there to see where the light coming from. So that light took me over there and just kept going, kept going, kept going. It's just a story that I fix up. That's the way.

(Do you have in the story what the light was you were looking for?)

It's a tipi, you know. There's a light inside, but I never go in there. I just seen the light. It just shone in my eye sight. Maybe through that, maybe my eyes might clear up, I ((Mr. POAFPYBITTY HAS BEEN BLIND SINCE 1960)) Maybe someday, my eyes might clear up. I don't know. Maybe that light you know--

(How long ago did you say you went blind?)

In the year of '60, 1960.

(What year were you born in?)

July, 1900.

(Where were you born?)

Here, in the state of Oklahoma.

(Right around this place, or was it in some other place?)

I don't know, It might be up here at the spring. Or right here. Or up here on the hill. There's a bump there were my mother and father, the old people, when they first live here. I don't know what year they live here. Maybe that's where I was born. Across the creek over here.

(How old were you when you first went to school?)

When I first went to school? Oh, I was about nine, I guess.

(Was that at Cache Creek School, did you say--)

Let's see, nine, or about ten years old, when I went to school. Cache Creek Mission.

(Did you like it alright. at ~~Cache~~ Cache Creek?)
