

a lot of them.)

Something like that will make you respect them. Willie won't talk, he won't talk to you. Oh, he will talk to you, but he wouldn't talk nothin' about his experiences (There's very few people seem to know anything about the Wickliff family.)

Got the cleanest wife - a full-blood - in this land.

Lady: They are rebuilding their houses and when they get it finished, I bet it is the cleanest house in Pryor. I never saw anything like it.

You'd be glad to know him, Willie Wickliff.

(Was the Wickliff school named after that family?)

Yeah. They lived right north of there, oh, about 200 yards over there. I don't know who --- oh, old Nick Hamlon might give you a line on the Wickliffs. I think Nick could. He's an old fellow and he's got a good memory. And I believe he's been there always in the Wickliff neighborhood. I think Willie was one of the six fellows ((words not clear)).

MORE ABOUT WILLIE WICKLIFF

Lady: Washie, was Mr. Cockran ((not clear))?

No, I don't think so. Do you know Mr. Cockran?

(No, I don't know him.)

He is going to retire. Just like old Dave Quinton. He's been there years and years. You ought to stop and get acquainted with him. He is at the Wickliff school there. He lives in Rogers County.

(I'll try to stop and see him.)

I remember little ole Willie Wickliff used to say, "White Face, White Face". He'd call us White Face. When he was a small kid, she used to work my arithmetic over.

Lady: Washie, was Willie the only child?

Washie: No, he had some brothers and sisters.

Lady: Well, he didn't have any around here, did he?
