

NED CHRISTY'S OLD HOME PLACE

(Is that where Ned Christy's old place, on that 30 acres?)

Yes. It's on all that 30 acres. They used to be some of the old sandstones of the old foundation, you know. They burnt his cabin. That's how come--you see he'd just have holes where could poke his gun out and they even used cannons, you know. You know my kids found a cannon ball over there. We had it down here and never thought nothin' about it, and I don't know--we had bermuda in the yard down there at the old place, and they just hunted and hunted for that big old cannon ball, you know--about that long. They'd bring cannon, you know, out here.

Third Voice: They'd shoot logs out of his house.

Yeah. They burnt one of his cabins. They burnt one right down here where we used to live. And burnt that one and I guess his parents and relatives helped him to build that fort over there and you know that's a whole lot higher than it looks. Was you ever out there on top of it?

Third Voice: Yeah.

On top of it. You can see all around,

(Now where is that?)

Just right there at the end of our field. You know over there where that little mountain is. And you'd be surprised.

NED CHRISTY FORT

(That's the old Ned Christy Fort?)

Yeah. Up there. And you can get up there and you can see all around and just to be passin' by you wouldn't think--but it's a
