

coons, but they're stealing horses and cattle, and camping up there.

We got off and went up to the front door. This Joe Marsh (or Moss) is the name of that man--his friend. He's a white man.

He said, "Get off. Hurry up. We're going to eat supper. Hurry up." We got off. We see horses tied up on the barn. Lots of horses up there. Got guns here (on saddle?). Dogs, they keep barking, you know. We went that way (Unintelligible phrase).

I see a man talking--a good-looking man. Boy! He got black hair, cut right there. He got red mustache, right this way. When he'd talking, he's got that gold tooth, right there. It just shine like that. Got white shirt. Got old time (unintelligible word) on. It's red, you know. He's got black shoes on. He got watch in here. He said, "Hey, my friend, Kiowa Jack--hurry up. We got to go up the mountains!" They got four boys. Oh, they got pretty hat on. They all together here. Jesse James got two guns here. He got shot around here (probably wearing a cartridge belt.).

Got boots on. Boy, he's good-looking man! He went up there.

They pass around a cigar. They give it to me once, too. They got through. And he said, and they call Joe--Joe Marsh (or Moss) is his name. He say, "I got coon dog out there. We're going to leave tomorrow about early--train going to Kansas City. Load them cattle and horses. I got some boys up there. I'm going to take this boy and give him about three dogs." He means me. "Coon dogs. Give him three," he said. Good camp dog and coon dog. All right.

They got them all tied up. They're chained, you know. They all got on a horse and went up there. Went up that mountain, all of them. They said Kiowa Jack came back and said, "They're driving close to a hundred cattle and horses. They're driving them into Weatherford." About five o'clock they got there. Some boys were up there. They got lots of horses in the corral, and lots of cattle.
