

in that group, yet people say where was God? I'm trying to prove to the people that God still lives. That God still hears prayers. That God's compassion is still all around us. Trying to reach us in the lives and in the minds and the souls of the people of the world. I'm trying to say to God, God I know You're alive, because you are in me. That we have something to feel. I want to preach to the people, I want to tell them that God is alive. That God is not dead. This man just stood there though it was cold. Night came on, but he still stood there. Said the girl was warm because I give her my coat. He said I must go because I have (not clear)--and when he tells that Jesus is alive. That Jesus is your Savior. That Jesus is everywhere and that is the only way to be saved. And the man went. Yes, that's the story that we're trying to put across to you tonight. You may think that God is dead, no God is not dead. Jesus is everywhere. We call upon them wherever you are. Right now if you say, Lord save me. Save (Cherokee) Jonah found out the hard way. (not clear) found out the hard way. Moses found out the hard way. No Beloved they didn't find out. That was the love of God trying to show to men that God is willing to save anyone, and everyone. Let us pray. (Cherokee)--when we pray for those that aren't here. We pray for the Christians that are weak, and the down and out and for our fellow-man. We have seen the gifts their fellowmen of God. Oh Father tonight help us along that someone may say, "yes!" I've sinned against my God, and I accept Jesus as my savior, --in Jesus Christ's name we pray. Amen. Singing: Pleads for dedication from unsaved (prayer) (Cherokee) We will not forget the boys in the service and wherever they are God bless them. See you tomorrow night for worship services, In Jesus name we pray. Amen.

(End of Sermon)