T-242-11

<pre>(How did you do your lessons?) We had slates, that's all. (Did they ever-teach you songs?) Yeah, they teach us songs. (What kind were theydo you remember?) Just ordinary songs, whatever they can teach us. (Did they ever take you to church, tooor teach you?) Oh, we had church there where they used to teach us. We had a minister there to teach us. (How often did you go to chapel?) Sundays? Sunday. No, not during the week. (What church did that minister belong towas he a Methodist' or Mennonite?) No. There used to be a preacher come. He was Catholic. He used to come from out in the country. I don't know where he used to five. His name was Sanford. He was a white man. (Did the people like him?) He used to have a gown on, when he preaches. (Did he speak Arapaho?) No. (How did the Arapahoes understand him?) Well, they had to use interpreter. (Do you remember who the interpreter was?) No. Different ones. (How long did you stay in school?) I toid you. You been asking me over and over. I can't change it. (What did you do then when you got through?)' I used to cook for the people that used to be 'at the Office. He had a wife but it was just him and his wife. His rame was Mr. Leonard. He used to work at the Office. Yeah. (Did you live with them, too?) Yeah.</pre>
<pre>(Did they ever-teach you songs?) Yeah, they teach us songs. (What kind were they-do you remember?) Just ordinary songs, whatever they can teach us. (Did they ever take you to church, tooor teach you?) Oh, we had church there where they used to teach us. We had a minister there to teach us. (How often did you go to chapel?) Sundays? Sunday. No, not during the week. (What church did that minister belong towas he a Methodist' or Mennonite?) No. There used to be a preacher come. He was Catholic. He used to come from out in the country. I don't know where he used to five. His name was Sanford. He was a white man. (Did the people like him?) He used to have a gown on, when he preaches. (Did he speak Arapaho?) No. (How did the Arapahoes understand him?) Well, they had to use interpreter (Do you remember who the interpreter was?) No. Different ones. (How long did you stay in school?) I told you. You been asking me over and over. I can't change it. (What did you do then when you got through?) Yeah. LIFE HISTORY MATERIAL- (What did you do then when you got through?) I used to cook for the people that used to be 'at the Office. He had a wife but it was just him and his wife. His name was Mr. Leonard. He used to work at 'the Office. Yeah, they pay me ten dollars a month. (Did you live with them, too?)</pre>		-(How did you do your lessons?)
<pre>Yeah, they teach us songs. (What kind were theydo you remember?) Just ordinary songs, whatever they can teach us. (Did they ever take you to church, tooor teach you?) Oh, we had church there where they used to teach us. We had a minister there to teach us. (How often did you go to chapel?) Sundays? Sunday. No, not during the week. (What church did that minister belong towas he a Methodist'or Mennonite?) NO. There used to be a preacher come. He was Catholic. He used to come from out in the country. I don't know where he used to five. His name was Sanford. He was a white man. (Did the people like him?) He used to have a gown on, when he preaches. (Did the speak Arapaho?) No. (How did the Arapahoes understand him?) .well, they had to use interpreter. (Do you remember who the interpreter was?) No. Different ones. (How long did you stay in school?) I told you. You been asking me over and over. I can't change it. (Were you grown up when you got through?) Yeah. LIFE HISTORY MATERIAL (What did you do then when you got through?) I used to cook for the people that used to be'at the Office. He had a wife but it was just him and his wife. His grame was Mr. Leonard. He used to work at the Office. Yeah, they pay me ten dollars a month. (Did you live with them, too?)</pre>		We had slates, that's all.
<pre>(What kind were theydo you remember?) Just ordinary songs, whatever they can teach us. (Did they ever take you to church, tooor teach you?) On, we had church there where they used to teach us. We had a minister there to teach us. (How often did you go to chapel?) Sundays? Sunday. No, not during the week. (What church did that minister belong towas he a Methodist'or Mennonite?) No. There used to be a preacher come. He was Catholic. He used to come from out in the country. I don't know where he used to five. His name was Sanford. He was a white man. (Did the people like him?) He used to have a gown on, when he preaches. (Did the speak Arapaho?) No. (How did the Arapahoes understand him?) .well, they had to use interpreter (Do you remember who the interpreter was?) 'No. Different ones. (How long did you stay in school?) I told you. You been lasking me over and over. I can't change it. (Were you grown up when you got through?) Yeah. LIFE HISTORY MATERIAL (What did you do then when you got through?) I used to cook for the people that used to be at the Office. He had a wife but it was just him and his wife. His name was Mr. Leonard. He used to work at the Office. Yeah, they pay me ten dollars a month. (Did you live with them, too?)</pre>	-	(Did they ever-teach you songs?)
Just ordinary songs, whatever they can teach us. (Did they ever take you to church, tooor teach you?) Oh, we had church there where they used to teach us. We had a minister there to teach us. (How often did you go to chapel?) Sundays' Sunday. No, not during the week. (What church did that minister belong towas he a Methodist'or Mennonite?) No. There used to be a preacher come. He was Catholic. He used to come from out in the country. I don't know where he used to five. His name was Sanford. He was a white man. (Did the people like him?) He used to have a gown on, when he preaches. (Did he speak Arapaho?) No. (How did the Arapahoes understand him?) Well, they had to use interpreter. (Do you remember who the interpreter was?) No. Different ones. (How long did you stay in school?) I told you. You been asking me over and over. I can't change it. (What did you do then when you got through?) Yeah. LIFE HISTORY MATERIAL- (What did you do then when you got through?) I used to cook for the people that used to be at the Office. He had a wife but it was just him and his wife. His name was Mr. Leonard. He used to work at the Office. Yeah, they pay me ten dollars a month. (Did you live with them, too?)		Yeah, they teach us songs.
<pre>(Did they ever take you to church, tooor teach you?) Oh, we had church there where they used to teach us. We had a minister there to teach us. (How often did you go to chapel?) Sundays? Sunday. No, not during the week. (What church did that minister belong towas he a Methodist'or Memnonite?) No. There used to be a preacher come. He was Catholic. He used to come from out in the country. I don't know where he used to live. His name was Sanford. He was a white man. (Did the people like him?) He used to have a gown on, when he preaches. (Did the speak Arapaho?) No. (How did the Arapahoes understand him?) .Well, they had to use interpreter. (Do you remember who the interpreter was?) No. Different ones. (How long did you stay in school?) I told you. You been lasking me over and over. I can't change it. (Were you grown up when you got through?) Yeah. LIFE HISTORY MATERIAL (What did you do then when you got through?) I used to cook for the people that used to be at the Office. He had a wife but it was just him and his wife. His name was Mr. Leonard. He used to work at the Office. Yeah, they pay me ten dollars a month. (Did you live with them, too?)</pre>		(What kind were theydo you remember?)
<pre>Oh, we had church there where they used to teach us. We had a minister there to teach us. (How often did you go to chapel?) Sundays? Sunday. No, not during the week. (What church did that minister belong towas he a Methodist'or Mennonite?) No. There used to be a preacher come. He was Catholic. He used to come from out in the country. I don't know where he used to live. His name was Sanford. He was a white man. (Did the people like him?) He used to have a gown on, when he preaches. (Did he speak Arapaho?) No. (How did the Arapahoes understand him?) .well, they had to use interpreter. (Do you remember who the interpreter was?) No. Different ones. (How long did you stay in school?) I told you. You been 'asking me over and over. I can't change it. (Ware you grown up when you got through?) Yeah. LIFE HISTORY MATERIAL- (What did you do then when you got through?)' I used to cook for the people that used to be at the Office. He had a wife but it was just him and his wife. His name was Mr. Leonard. He used to work at the Office. Yeah, they pay me ten dollars a month. (Did you live with them, too?)</pre>		Just ordinary songs, whatever they can teach us.
a minister there to teach us. (How often did you go to chapel?) Sundays? Sunday. No, not during the week. (What church did that minister belong towas he a Methodist'or Mennon/te?) No. There used to be a preacher come. He was Catholic. He used to come from out in the country. I don't know where he used to five. His name was Sanford. He was a white man. (Did the people like him?) He used to have a gown on, when he preaches. (Did he speak Arapaho?) No. (How did the Arapahoes understand him?) .Well, they had to use interpreter. (Do you remember who the interpreter was?) No. Different ones. (How long did you stay in school?) I told you. You been 'asking me over and over. I can't change it. (Were you grown up when you got through?) Yeah. LIFE HISTORY MATERIAL (What did you do then when you got through?) I used to cook for the people that used to be 'at the Office. He had a wife but it was just him and his wife. His name was Mr. Leonard. He used to work at the Office. Yeah, they pay me ten dollars a month. (Did you live with them, too?)		(Did they ever take you to church, tooor teach you?)
<pre>(How often did you go to chape1?) Sundays? Sunday. No, not during the week. (What church did that minister belong towas he a Methodist'or Mennonite?) No. There used to be a preacher come. He was Catholic. He used to come from out in the country. I don't know where he used to five. His name was Sanford. He was a white man. (Did the people like him?) He used to have a gown on, when he preaches. (Did he speak Arapaho?) No. (How did the Arapahoes understand him?) .Well, they had to use interpreter. (Do you remember who the interpreter was?) No. Different ones. (How long did you stay in school?) I told you. You been asking me over and over. I can't change it. (Were you grown up when you got through?) Yeah. LIFE HISTORY MATERIAL (What did you do then when you got through?) I used to cook for the people that used to be at the Office. He had a wife but it was just him and his wife. His name was Mr. Leonard. He used to work at the Office. Yeah, they pay me ten dollars a month. (Did you live with them, too?)</pre>		Oh, we had church there where they used to teach us. We had
Sundays? Sunday. No, not during the week. (What church did that minister belong towas he a Methodist'or Mennonite?) No. There used to be a preacher come. He was Catholic. He used to come from out in the country. I don't know where he used to five. His name was Sanford. He was a white man. (Did the people like him?) He used to have a gown on, when he preaches. (Did he speak Arapaho?) No. (How did the Arapahoes understand him?) Well, they had to use interpreter. (Do you remember who the interpreter was?) No. Different ones. (How long did you stay in school?) I told you. You been asking me over and over. I can't change it. (Were you grown up when you got through?) Yeah. LIFE HISTORY MATERIAL (What did you do then when you got through?) I used to cook for the people that used to be at the Office. He had a wife but it was just him and his wife. His name was Mr. Leonard. He used to work at the Office. Yeah, they pay me ten dollars a month. (Did you live with them, too?)		a minister there to teach us.
<pre>(What church did that minister belong towas he a Methodist or Mennonite?) No. There used to be a preacher come. He was Catholic. He used to come from out in the country. I don't know where he used to five. His name was Sanford. He was a white man. (Did the people like him?) He used to have a gown on, when he preaches. (Did he speak Arapaho?) No. (How did the Arapahoes understand him?) Well, they had to use interpreter. (Do you remember who the interpreter was?) No. Different ones. (How long did you stay in school?) I told you. You been asking me over and over. I can't change it. (Were you grown up when you got through?) Yeah. LIFE HISTORY MATERIAL (What did you do then when you got through?) I used to cook for the people that used to be at the Office. He had a wife but it was just him and his wife. His name was Mr. Leonard. He used to work at the Office. Yeah, they pay me ten dollars a month. (Did you live with them, too?)</pre>		(How often did you go to chapel?)
<pre>Mennonite?) No. There used to be a preacher come. He was Catholic. He used to come from out in the country. I don't know where he used to live. His name was Sanford. He was a white man. (Did the people like him?) He used to have a gown on, when he preaches. (Did he speak Arapaho?) No. (How did the Arapahoes understand him?) .Well, they had to use interpreter. (Do you remember who the interpreter was?) ' No. Different ones. (How long did you stay in school?) I told you. You been 'asking me over and over. I can't change it. (Were you grown up when you got through?) Yeah. LIFE HISTORY MATERIAL (What did you do then when you got through?) I used to cook for the people that used to be 'at the Office. He had a wife but it was just him and his wife. His name was Mr. Leonard. He used to work at the Office. Yean, they pay me ten dollars a month. (Did you live with them, too?)</pre>		Sundays? Sunday. No, not during the week.
No. There used to be a preacher come. He was Catholic. He used to come from out in the country. I don't know where he used to live. His name was Sanford. He was a white man. (Did the people like him?) He used to have a gown on, when he preaches. (Did he speak Arapaho?) No. (How did the Arapahoes understand him?) Well, they had to use interpreter. (Do you remember who the interpreter was?) ' No. Different ones. (How long did you stay in school?) I told you. You been lasking me over and over. I can't change it. (Were you grown up when you got through?) Yeah. LIFE HISTORY MATERIAL (What did you do then when you got through?) I used to cook for the people that used to be at the Office. He had a wife but it was just him and his wife. His name was Mr. Leonard. He used to work at the Office. Yean, they pay me ten dollars a month. (Did you live with them, too?)		(What church did that minister belong towas he a Methodist or
<pre>used to come from out in the country. I don't know where he used to live. His name was Sanford. He was a white man. (Did the people like him?) He used to have a gown on, when he preaches. (Did he speak Arapaho?) No. (How did the Arapahoes understand him?) .Well, they had to use interpreter. (Do you remember who the interpreter was?) No. Different ones. (How long did you stay in school?) I told you. You been 'asking me over and over. I can't change it. (Were you grown up when you got through?) Yeah. LIFE HISTORY MATERIAL (What did you do then when you got through?) I used to cook for the people that used to be at the Office. He had a wife but it was just him and his wife. His name was Mr. Leonard. He used to work at the Office. Yeah, they pay me ten dollars a month. (Did you live with them, too?)</pre>		Mennonite?)
<pre>to live. His name was Sanford. He was a white man. (Did the people like him?) He used to have a gown on, when he preaches. (Did he speak Arapaho?) No. (How did the Arapahoes understand him?) .Well, they had to use interpreter. (Do you remember who the interpreter was?) No. Different ones. (How long did you stay in school?) I told you. You been 'asking me over and over. I can't change it. (Were you grown up when you got through?) Yeah. LIFE HISTORY MATERIAL (What did you do then when you got through?) I used to cook for the people that used to be at the Office. He had a wife but it was just him and his wife. His name was Mr. Leonard. He used to work at the Office. Yeah, they pay me ten dollars a month. (Did you live with them, too?)</pre>		No. There used to be a preacher come. He was Catholic. He
<pre>(Did the people like him?) He used to have a gown on, when he preaches. (Did he speak Arapaho?) No. (How did the Arapahoes understand him?) Well, they had to use interpreter. (Do you remember who the interpreter was?) No. Different ones. (How long did you stay in school?) I told you. You been asking me over and over. I can't change it. (Were you grown up when you got through?) Yeah. LIFE HISTORY MATERIAL (What did you do then when you got through?) I used to cook for the people that used to be at the Office. He had a wife but it was just him and his wife. His name was Mr. Leonard. He used to work at the Office. Yeah, they pay me ten dollars a month. (Did you live with them, too?)</pre>		used/to come from out in the country. I don't know where he used
He used to have a gown on, when he preaches. (Did he speak Arapaho?) No. (How did the Arapahoes understand him?) Well, they had to use interpreter. (Do you remember who the interpreter was?) No. Different ones. (How long did you stay in school?) I told you. You been asking me over and over. I can't change it. (Were you grown up when you got through?) Yeah. LIFE HISTORY MATERIAL (What did you do then when you got through?) I used to cook for the people that used to be at the Office. He had a wife but it was just him and his wife. His name was Mr. Leonard. He used to work at the Office. Yeah, they pay me ten dollars a month. (Did you live with them, too?)	;	to live. His name was Sanford. He was a white man.
<pre>(Did he speak Arapaho?) No. (How did the Arapahoes understand him?) .Well, they had to use interpreter. (Do you remember who the interpreter was?) No. Different ones. (How long did you stay in school?) I told you. You been asking me over and over. I can't change it. (Were you grown up when you got through?) Yeah. LIFE HISTORY MATERIAL (What did you do then when you got through?) I used to cook for the people that used to be at the Office. He had a wife but it was just him and his wife. His name was Mr. Leonard. He used to work at the Office. Yeah, they pay me ten dollars a month. (Did you live with them, too?)</pre>		(Did the people like him?)
<pre>No. (How did the Arapahoes understand him?) .Well, they had to use interpreter. (Do you remember who the interpreter was?) No. Different ones. (How long did you stay in school?) I told you. You been asking me over and over. I can't change it. (Were you grown up when you got through?) Yeah. LIFE HISTORY MATERIAL (What did you do then when you got through?) I used to cook for the people that used to be at the Office. He had a wife but it was just him and his wife. His name was Mr. Leonard. He used to work at the Office. Yean, they pay me ten dollars a month. (Did you live with them, too?)</pre>		He used to have a gown on, when he preaches.
<pre>(How did the Arapahoes understand him?) .Well, they had to use interpreter. (Do you remember who the interpreter was?) No. Different ones. (How long did you stay in school?) I told you. You been asking me over and over. I can't change it. (Were you grown up when you got through?) Yeah. LIFE HISTORY MATERIAL (What did you do then when you got through?) I used to cook for the people that used to be at the Office. He had a wife but it was just him and his wife. His name was Mr. Leonard. He used to work at the Office. Yeah, they pay me ten dollars a month. (Did you live with them, too?)</pre>	•.	(Did he speak Arapaho?)
<pre>Well, they had to use interpreter. (Do you remember who the interpreter was?) No. Different ones. (How long did you stay in school?) I told you. You been asking me over and over. I can't change it. (Were you grown up when you got through?) Yeah. LIFE HISTORY MATERIAL (What did you do then when you got through?) I used to cook for the people that used to be at the Office. He had a wife but it was just him and his wife. His name was Mr. Leonard. He used to work at the Office. Yeah, they pay me ten dollars a month. (Did you live with them, too?)</pre>	*	No.
<pre>(Do you remember who the interpreter was?) No. Different ones. (How long did you stay in school?) I told you. You been asking me over and over. I can't change it. (Were you grown up when you got through?) Yeah. LIFE HISTORY MATERIAL (What did you do then when you got through?) I used to cook for the people that used to be at the Office. He had a wife but it was just him and his wife. His name was Mr. Leonard. He used to work at the Office. Yeah, they pay me ten dollars a month. (Did you live with them, too?)</pre>	/	(How did the Arapahoes understand him?)
<pre>No. Different ones. (How long did you stay in school?) I told you. You been 'asking me over and over. I can't change it. (Were you grown up when you got through?) Yeah. LIFE HISTORY MATERIAL (What did you do then when you got through?) I used to cook for the people that used to be at the Office. He had a wife but it was just him and his wife. His name was Mr. Leonard. He used to work at the Office. Yean, they pay me ten dollars a month. (Did you live with them, too?)</pre>	1	Well, they had to use interpreter.
<pre>(How long did you stay in school?) I told you. You been asking me over and over. I can't change it. (Were you grown up when you got through?) Yeah. LIFE HISTORY MATERIAL (What did you do then when you got through?) I used to cook for the people that used to be at the Office. He had a wife but it was just him and his wife. His name was Mr. Leonard. He used to work at the Office. Yeah, they pay me ten dollars a month. (Did you live with them, too?)</pre>	1	(Do you remember who the interpreter was?) '
I told you. You been asking me over and over. I can't change it. (Were you grown up when you got through?) Yeah. LIFE HISTORY MATERIAL (What did you do then when you got through?) I used to cook for the people that used to be at the Office. He had a wife but it was just him and his wife. His name was Mr. Leonard. He used to work at the Office. Yeah, they pay me ten dollars a month. (Did you live with them, too?)	r	No. Different ones.
<pre>it. (Were you grown up when you got through?) Yeah. LIFE HISTORY MATERIAL (What did you do then when you got through?) I used to cook for the people that used to be at the Office. He had a wife but it was just him and his wife. His name was Mr. Leonard. He used to work at the Office. Yeah, they pay me ten dollars a month. (Did you live with them, too?)</pre>
<pre>(Were you grown up when you got through?) Yeah. LIFE HISTORY MATERIAL (What did you do then when you got through?) I used to cook for the people that used to be at the Office. He had a wife but it was just him and his wife. His name was Mr. Leonard. He used to work at the Office. Yeah, they pay me ten dollars a month. (Did you live with them, too?)</pre>		I told you. You been asking me over and over. I can't change
Yeah. LIFE HISTORY MATERIAL (What did you do then when you got through?) I used to cook for the people that used to be at the Office. He had a wife but it was just him and his wife. His name was Mr. Leonard. He used to work at the Office. Yeah, they pay me ten dollars a month. (Did you live with them, too?)
LIFE HISTORY MATERIAL (What did you do then when you got through?) I used to cook for the people that used to be at the Office. He had a wife but it was just him and his wife. His name was Mr. Leonard. He used to work at the Office. Yeah, they pay me ten dollars a month. (Did you live with them, too?)		(Were you grown up when you got through?)
<pre>(What did you do then when you got through?)' I used to cook for the people that used to be at the Office. He had a wife but it was just him and his wife. His name was Mr. Leonard. He used to work at the Office. Yeah, they pay me ten dollars a month. (Did you live with them, too?)</pre>		Yeah.
I used to cook for the people that used to be at the Office. He had a wife but it was just him and his wife. His name was Mr. Leonard. He used to work at the Office. Yeah, they pay me ten dollars a month. (Did you live with them, too?)		LIFE HISTORY MATERIAL
I used to cook for the people that used to be at the Office. He had a wife but it was just him and his wife. His name was Mr. Leonard. He used to work at the Office. Yeah, they pay me ten dollars a month. (Did you live with them, too?)		(What did you do then when you got through?)
He had a wife but it was just him and his wife. His name was Mr. Leonard. He used to work at the Office. Yeah, they pay me ten dollars a month. (Did you live with them, too?)
Mr. Leonard. He used to work at the Office. Yeah, they pay me ten dollars a month. (Did you live with them, too?)
ten dollars a month. (Did you live with them, too?)
(Did you live with them, too?)	•

¥

. 1

• 1