

we did. And then when John Light-he built him a new barn, and he says "I--when I get my barn finished, I want you all to come out and we'll have a dance, in about a week. I'm gonna have it ready. You stay all night he said--dance. We all went and John Foreman had the hotel. And he said send as many down here as we have empty beds. We all stayed all night in town that night. Next morning we all went back up to John's for breakfast. Then we came on home. We had a lot of fun. And that trip as I remember as a little girl, we used to go in the morning. And then you know how people come home with them for dinner on Sundays, and then later on they had Sunday school in the church in the afternoon, because often the minister that was preaching down here, Mr. Dave Allen, such a wonderful preacher. And he come out there and preached to us--in the afternoon. So we'd all go to Sunday school and church, and after church, why, we'd say--
