

I've still got it. No telling how old that thing is.

(Oh yeah.)

And Dad used peyote. I use it. And you can see what kind of a man - You can go down there to any bank - and I'm not bragging. I wish white man would leave us alone, treat us a little more decent about this peyote. It's used - I use it when I need it for medical purposes. That's the only time I use it. I don't use every day, no other time. No. Just when I need it. I use it when I am at home. I wish white man would give us a break and leave us alone. That's our church - where we go. That's how we worship. We worship all night. Pray to Almighty. Like the war, we hope it would stop. We pray. That's how most of them got praying.

(Un hunh.)

Long time ago they claim peyote come to them, and now I tell 'em same thing.

(Un hunh.)

God gives protection and we try to help protect these young boys. But the white man bring whiskey, wine, beer, rubbing alcohol - And these young boys take that and go to one of these meetings. That's how white man take peyote, which is not true, we just not pleased. Anytime they want to use use peyote seriously I will go anywhere to help tell 'em the whole truth.

(Maybe it's the young Indian way.)

That's what I mean. And that's what--

(They take over?)

Yeah. Yeah, I know some boys take it. Used to go up and preach it. I said, "Yeah, I won't go no more." You know why. It's just on account of you boys. When you boys drink wine, beer, maybe something that's got alcohol. Then you
