

Yeah. They went - Colorado had 'em most of the time they're there. Rent wasn't too high. But farther you go toward Manitou there more people and cost you more to live. Then some of 'em live out toward Broadmoor, that part out there, not too many houses then. Houses all over in there now. But you could rent houses in there a long time ago pretty reasonable. And then Frank Mayes used to live out there. We used to be acquainted with him. He was married to a woman out there. He was married to - I don't know whether you remember her or not (Name not clear). They live out there and we'd see them.

(Oh yeah.)

J.C. and Lela - they live out there and we went to see them.

(They had a couple of daughters, don't they?)

Yeah. They are adopted daughters. Did one of 'em get killed?

(Un Hunnh.)

She got married at (name not clear).

(There's a few Osages (names not clear) lives out there in Colorado Springs now, aren't they? Oh, I guess Julia and Marvin are back, aren't they?)

Yes, see. They down to Binger, working now.

(Big Horses?)

You mean Ace?

(Un Hunnh, and his boys. They must own a home out there because they go out there a lot of times.
