

(What other things do they do at a wedding, besides run races?)

Well, just at the weddin' - the regular weddin' - is just the bride and all her bridesmaids and the man - the boy's - whoever is standing for the boy is the one that eats the supper that evening. Then everybody goes home and the bride stays with the boy's people that night and then the bride and groom are taken back to her people the next morning. Sometimes they take back the same day. I have known that, the same day. But usually they spend overnight with the boy's folks...Is that the way you want it - to tell it?...Yeah. And then that's all.

(And then do they live with the girl's parents? Is that the way they do or do they just move off to themselves?)

Sometimes. They usually stay with the girl's parents until they're ready to go to themselves.

SHE RAN AWAY FROM HOME. SHE WANTED TO GO AWAY TO SCHOOL. FATHER MADE HER MARRY.

(I want to ask you a little bit about yourself and you can tell about your work in the church - Just whatever you'd like to tell about that.)

In the Osage boarding school the first starting of my school - I didn't have a mother. I was practically raised by my grandparents.

(How old were you when you went to school?)

About six years old. I went to the Osage Boarding school, till I was about thirteen - twelve or thirteen. And then, after that, I went to the St. Louis school, Catholic girl's school. That's where I supposed to finish my eighth grade.

(Did you finish up out there?)

Uh-huh. Catholic school. It's a girl's school, you know. That's where they send me. Well, after that - after I finish the eighth grade and left school,
