

(How long ago was that when that man came here?)

Oh, that's oh, about uh, 3 years. 23 years ago.

(Jenny: He was collecting old pictures like them.)

I just didn't--I didn't--my wife, Jenny said, "Please don't give him my father's and my pictures." So I hid them you know. I didn't give them. But I could have got a dollar a piece for them, but they are worth more than that.

(What was his name?)

(Jennie: Jack--what's his name? Full name?)

Glover. Glover. Jack Glover.

(Jennie:-- a old museum--)

(I've heard about him.)

He's got that picture already. That's chief Quannah Parker. He's got that picture in a frame now, and he got a lot of arrow heads, and he wouldn't take a thousand dollars for that picture.

(Where is his museum?)

He's at Sunshine..

(Jenny: Going towards Dallas. Other side of Dallas.)

About a hundred fifty miles, 200 miles. I've got some--I'll tell you what--I got some tomahawks and rocks that he wants, that man. Oh he buys.

(Jennie: We should take our stuff over there. Sometimes he comes here.)

(Some irrelevant conversation.)

NATURE OF PEYOTE RELIGION:

Now we can start on our peyote again. Let's see where were we?

(They sent it to Germany to have it analyzed.)

Analyzed? O.K. Now, I'm going to talk some more about the peyote. I
