

works every day for that lady on the ranch. He'll take us through. He knows.

(I see. What's that lady's name?)

I forgot the name, but it's Jim Haley's sister.

(Gee, I'd like to do that sometime. I don't know when.)

Well, you come around. You tell me about when, then I'll see my friend and get the day set. I'll write you and we won't have any trouble with it. We go up there unprepared, we might not find her at home. Fix it ahead of time and--it's not very far from here.

(Well, on the other story, the story about Boinedal--)

Yeah, we didn't get all that.

(Well, do you have some more?)

Well, I was trying to find that part of the story and how old he was and all that. I got that record from the office book. It's made seventy years ago. I got a copy of it. That's what I wanted to show you. I got it somewhere with my papers but I haven't got it filed. That's the reason I have a hard time finding it. I've got them in different places.

(Yeah, I know how that is.)

Yeah, I got it. But just where I put it, I don't know. I can find it if it's in there.

GUY INTERPRETS AND IS WITNESS WHEN BOINEDAL MAKES HIS WILL

But anyway, Boinedal, he grewed to a ripe old age, to ninety-five when he died. He died, I think, August 8, nineteen hundred and eight. According to the record. I could make a mistake, but not much. I don't--I think that's right. I'll try and find out the next time you come and then we'll have it. And the experience
