

that's number one.

(Tahlequah, number one.)

Cherokee County. That's a number one.

(Johnson Prairie (not clear).)

(Next sentence not clear - much static.)

The time--in Oklahoma--this in Cherokee County, from Arkansas (not clear) used to be a long time, I'd say. Oh, that's a bad men come there. Yeah, used to be.

(Bad men go through here.)

Long time (not clear). Cherokee county and--two mile--west and north, and there, used to be buffalo, long time ago.

(Well, long time ago lots buffalo here.)

Wild.

(Wild buffalo here.)

Then over here Illinois River. Eagle nest, we've got lots of eagles, used to be, a long time ago.

(Next sentence not clear)

Osage: Like a porch. Kinda like these brush arbors like they have now, pile brush on top.

(Yeah, in sod house.) (Not clear)--those days hardly.)

No.

INDIAN DOCTORING AND MEDICINE

(In those days if you got sick, you could go out there in the woods, and gather the leaf and root, and make medicine.)

Wild root (rest of sentence not clear). This now don't (not clear). I call them weeds.

Osage: That's the best medicine you can get, which you made up yourself.

(Laughter).

Isn't that funny? Long time get pain--ache--when you get sick--the Indian now go to Claremore Indian Hospital.