

We didn't have any. Just trails.

(Yeah. Didn't have no law and order or policeman here?)

Didn't have any. You carried a six-shooter on your hip all the time was the only protection you had.

(Yeah.)

Didn't have any police here.

(No police?)

No. No law at all. (This tape is inaudible - discussion is about law and order.) But everybody carried a six-shooter.

(Well, back in those early days, did they have train robberies?)

No. I don't remember it. (remainder of interview is inaudible)

(End of Interview)