

house is, I bought 30 acres. I bought, I went and bought it and paid for everything and told Mr. Colvin why I want it--for school house. He said "I hope you make it." I asked the old man and they old man--one day I asked him, I said, "Do you think we need school house." He give me a quick answer. Yes. I said, "All right, I think I'll try to get the community to buy it. I don't want it to sell unless it used for church." He said, "Well I tell you. Don't tell nobody just let them go ahead and make up the $100.00 and then give them the place. Then after you mentioned it, you mention the way you want it, I'm just goin' give them the place." He didn't say he's going to give it to me, he just said he's going to give it. I made up my mind and told them. You make up $100.00, you can buy ten acres right here, (sentence not clear). Oh, about a week before that got money to pay for that, I done already know they gonna get it. (not clear)--said I'm not going to tell them again. They talked about it. Three good men down there. I couldn't name all the men who signed in name of church. Said the whole Indian community would own it. (The remainder of this side of tape is inaudible. Too much static interference. Interview continued on side B)