

T-294 - 2

("knee"?)

Knee is "nĕ ramap".

("stomach"?)

"nĕ sap".

(Is it the same word for outside and inside the stomach?)

Yes same word.

("Heart"?)

"nĕ riĥ".

(In English they say that they feel something in their heart. Do the Comanches use the same way?)

You mean feelings for somebody?)

(Yes. You feel it deeply.)

Let's see. "nĕ riĥi e nĕsĕkat". It means, "My heart is feeling bad." Just like you be mourning for somebody and your heart don't feel good. "nĕ riĥi e nĕsĕkat".

(What about if your feeling good?)

"tsa nĕsĕkat" means "I feel good." "My heart feels good", "nĕ riĥi tsa nĕsĕkat".

(If you just wanted to tell somebody you're feeling good, is that what you would say?)

Yes. The same thing.

(Are there any differences if you were saying that to a woman or a man, or would you say the same thing to both?)

Yeah, you say the same thing to both.

(What is the word for "house"?)

"kat" "nĕkat" means "my house."

("room"?)

"kaniten".

("hat about "hotel"?)

(How do you talk about land. Like if you wanted to say just the land that this house is on?)
