

Same word but the last part different.

(How would you say tipi?)

"n<sup>h</sup> muk'ni".

(What about tipi poles?)

"wa.<sup>p</sup> ".

(Did the poles have different names?)

They just all poles. "wa.<sup>p</sup> ".

("fire"?)

"g<sup>a</sup> n".

(What about "peyote"?)

"wok'w<sup>h</sup> i".

(What does that mean? Does it mean peyote or--)

It means peyote..

(I was curious because some tribes have names for peyote like "grandfather".)

No.

(How would you say "grandfather"?)

(What about "grandmother"?)

"n<sup>h</sup> ka'ko'".

(You don't use that "pia"; "mother"?)

No.

"ba."

("cedar"?)

"wa.pi".

("fish"?)

("swelling"?)

"b<sup>h</sup>kwit "/
