

or young people now--they have this opportunity to learn. Even some of our older people are still learning and going to school and it's very great that this is taking place. Also, the Indian Hospitals are taking on more patients and I have seen it here and I have seen it out in the Navajo Reservation in Arizona. There are many people being helped today by the Government in this manner.

(End of Interview.)