

T-302

CARL KICKINGBIRD, KIOWA

INTERVIEWED BY: KIRK KICKINGBIRD

INTERVIEW DATE: AUGUST 6, 1968

TRANSCRIBED BY: KIRK KICKINGBIRD

GENERAL SUBJECT: SCHOOLS; FARMING; GRANDPARENTS; RELIGION; SAINDAY
STORIES; PEYOTE AND CHRISTIANITY; BIA

TOPICS DISCUSSED:

SCHOOLS
FARMING
POLITICS
KICKING BIRD
HARRY, GUY, AND LYNN WARE
INDIAN MEDICINE
GEORGE MOPOPE
STORIES - SAINDAY, THE BALL THAT COULD DOUBLE THINGS
RELIGION
BIA AND CLOTHING ORDERS

BACKGROUND OF INFORMANT:

Carl Kickingbird was forty-nine years of age at the time of this interview. He was reared near Washita, which is west of Anadarko, Oklahoma. He attended public school in Washita, Haskell Institute for one semester and finished business college at King Business College. Carl has worked in aircraft plants in both Seattle and Wichita after completing a sheet metal course at Chilocco Indian School. He now lives in El Reno, Oklahoma where he is a linotype operator for the local newspaper.