

T-312-2 (Second of Three Interviews)
SARAH LOCUST, CHEROKEE
INTERVIEWED BY: J. W. TYNER
INTERVIEW DATE: AUGUST 13, 1968

GENERAL SUBJECT: SPEAKS, READS AND WRITES CHEROKEE LANGUAGE;
CHURCHES; SCHOOLS; PEOPLE.

Remarks: The quality of this tape are very poor and parts of it were inaudible. This is not an exact transcription of the tape, but a summary furnished by Field Worker, J. W. Tyner.

BACKGROUND OF INFORMANT:

Sarah Locust is 83 years of age. She lives in the Long Prairie community, in Craig County. She is full blood Cherokee and reads and writes the language fluently. Ms. Locust lives on her original allotment where she has lived since 1905.

NOTE: The other interviews on this tape are: Andrew Crittenden, Cherokee
Henry Vann, Cherokee