

Cry Woman. (Referring to translation of Kiowa term as Cry Woman, instead of Cry Girl.)

(I saw one book says that--)

That "cry girl" if you would be maton (Kiowa term for "girl.")

(One book says this was Topan was the name of Kickingbird's daughter.)

(Mrs. Curley: Topan--)

(Did you ever hear of that or know what it means?)

(Mrs. Curley: (Kiowa) ).

I just know Maukoimah--Belle Kickingbird.

(What does that mean?)

(Mrs. Curley: "Flat Nose Woman." She was real pretty.)

(This Topan a-na-a-na. Have you ever heard of anything that sounds like that? I'm just merely asking if there's a name like that?)

(Mrs. Curley: (says Kiowa word) It's Topan--something. Topan. That's "Sore Face: something. He (Guy) said he never did hear it. to.pan means-- That's not Topan--it's t'o.pan. (Correcting and giving the proper Kiowa pronunciation.)).

(Might mean about the same thing as this other one too.)

(End of interview.)
