

people, as many as possible, to enter and stay in school. Many have entered Haskell Institute but it has been our pleasure to help all the young people, those from primary classes through college. We helped them find loans for tuition and we've helped them with clothes. And we've must have also been a great help in helping people find summer work. Now in May of this year, Tom (not clear) and Emmett (not clear) attended the conference of Christians and Jews. It was held at Las Cruces, New Mexico. The governor's committee on Children and Youth were highly in favor with the excellence of reports the boys brought back with them. And it's very find for the Foundation and for the tribe to see that our children are recognized, reliable, and intelligent as we know they are. The foundation is a non-profit organization supported totally by contribution from membership and (not clear). And contributions from outside sources. We would like to invite you to join up here at this foundation. We have two young ladies-- (Applause)

(Mr. Frank Musgrave is now giving a talk.)

Since we are running a little late, I will make this very brief. I would like to urge first that all of you who can and will, give $1.00, entrance will be obtained at the desk over there on this sidewalk. All the money we take in will be for charity and to help the needy Cherokee people and not one cent goes for traveling or expenses in any form. Each year central committee selects the number of people who will be worthy of special certificates or awards of merit for work they have done over and beyond the call of duty. It is my pleasure today to represent our great chief, W. W. Keeler in presenting these awards. First, I would like to make an award to Johnny Masters. Johnny is here with his niece and will receive this award. Now Johnny is a member of the Cherokee Executive Committee and he is always willing to lend a hand to help any Cherokee with any problems he might have. For years he has done his work over in and around Jay and he is one of the finest old-
