

where they live. There's always somebody trying to pass another car, you know, right along that ditch in a no passing zone. And the patrolmens always like to set right down there in the holler where they couldn't be seen. One Sunday we come in from Sunday School and there was my niece, she was standin' jumpin' up and down. "Y'gonna get 'em, y'gonna get 'em." I said, "What's the matter?" She said "Boy, there's a car come by there, and a feller right down there jest passed him like that, and that patrolmen settin' right there." (laughter) And she was settin' right up there where she could see everything. (laughter).

WATER SUPPLY FOR HOME - WOODBURNING STOVES.

(Do you have a good water supply here?)

I guess so. I've got about 140 gallons in that well.

(Soft water is it?)

No, it's hard water.

(Well, you know, usually up in these hills a great lot of the water is nice and soft.)

Well, mine's hard though. (not clear) --though in the winter time I don't want to have to stand out there and hang on to that well like that, and the rope all cold. (laughter)

(Yes that would be hard in the winter time, rope frozen.)

Yeah. And then sometimes the pipe is frozen.

(Yeah. Sometimes it might freeze up.)

One good thing I can't get along without though, is that stove.

(Yes, that's a wood burner.)

Yeah. If I don't get some wood, this winter I don't know what I'm gonna do. Wood's gettin' so scarce anymore and so high.

(What do they cut for stove wood, oak?)

Yes. Oak and anything they can get anymore. There's a boy up here, got me
