

means "Superior." That where they got that big broncho rodeo out there.

(Have a big rodeo long time ago too. Have good riders.)

Yeah. Good riders then, about as good as they now. At these rodeos, they have good calves. (Name not clear), he was the best rider I ever seen. His name was (name not clear). He sure was a good rider. He had lots of game chickens all over at his barn. He had game roosters. Riding the horses with (not clear) hit him with crow bar.

IN EARLY DAYS, A GOOD MEAL FOR TWENTY-FIVE CENTS

(Yeah, that was back in the days when they had big livery stables?)

Yeah. Days when they have to--they didn't have no restaurants there. They have hotels. When they eat, well, it all on the table and it cost a quarter for dinner, you know.

(Quarter for dinner?)

Yeah. All you want.

(Them was the good old days.)

Yeah, good old days. They had feed store and grocery store, you know. All them old customs all gone.

(Did they use to have a well right in the middle of the street there at Vinita?)

Yeah. Right there. Right in the middle of the street. And one right there close to, you know, where the police station is, it was right there in that place. You could water your horses there.

(Yeah, wagon and buggy days.)

Had good times in those days.
