

to preach was Frank Angie Smith. That's his name right here, Frank Angie Smith. And then I got an Elder's Order under his brother, Angie Smith and, let's see, this is the man that licensed me. There it is! License to preach, September 20, 1937 under A. Frank Smith and his brother Angie Smith, had licensed me for Elder's Order. Elder's Order, --see this fellow, that's his brother.

(Well, did you have to take any kind of a test or pass any kind of requirement to get this license?)

To get this license?

(Yes.)

I have to go to school three years at the University of Oklahoma.

(Oh, you did?)

I went to school there three years.

(OH!)

After I got, well, finish it and then course I have right to get this. And other Elder's Order and the Deacon's Order.

TRAINING RECEIVED AT THE UNIVERSITY OF OKLAHOMA TO PREPARE FOR THE MINISTRY

(Well, when you went to school at OU, what did you study there?)

What?

(What did you study there?)

Oh, I have to--

(Just remember, just what you remember.)

I know, I know it. I got that--well, we study English, history and history of Methodists, and well, how to preach, how to use your theme, use your topics and the program of the Methodist Church.

I've got all the cards out here. Oh, yes, how you baptize, how you marry people, birthdays, and so on.
