

(The Tape ran out so the rest of this conversation was recorded on paper only)

--Native American Church members. They said, "We've joined your church and been members for two weeks, but if you ever preach against peyote, we're quitting." That's the way they people are. If you preach against it, some of them got mad and walk out.