

(Hickory)

And ash

(That's the kind that had that lace bottom)

Yeah. Uh-huh.

(Where they wet the hickory then laced it together and when it dries then it stays there. The Cherokees as an Indian tribe, they never did go in for jewelry did they?)

No.

(You never do see any Cherokees with jewelry. Wonder why?)

Well, I don't know. I never did see a one with it ____.

(Now Cherokees, some time they wear one feather, but that's about all)

Um-hum. Yeah. This what they call Night-Hawks. Well they wear feathers.

NIGHT HAWKS -- LOCATION AND BELIEFS

(Are there any Night-Hawks around here?)

Well they's some cross that river towards Chewey. They got a stomp ground over there. Think they, most of 'em Night-Hawks over there.

(Some up at Jay too)

Yeah. And I magine they's some over by Kenwood too.

(What all do the Night-Hawks believe, besides land matters?)

Well, I think one thing they believe about this religion y'know.

I think the way they do y'know, they got a fire there all the time burning. And they have a certain night, you know they'll go over there and just stomp danc all night long. That's Christian life, they say, the way they believe. But you know some, I have heard, you know durin', they was goin to give out Cherokees money y'know
