

Mission?

(The old Mission wasn't it?)

Yeow, it was right along down the road there like you goin' to South Muskogee. Bout' all them big buildins' tore down now. I got some of the stuff out there, they tore them big buildins' down and sold out.

NAMES SOME OLD-TIMERS IN WELLING

(Who were the men that run these stores here then?)

Hodge brothers.

(Hodge baothers.)

They all dead.

(Grey. Did Grey run a store too?)

Jim Grey used to run it. He still owns ever thing--his wife does--he's dead.

(And who run the cotton gin?)

I'll be dad-blamed if I know now. Let's see now--

(Who were some of the other old timers that were living here in the early day when they had a pretty good town here?)

Well, Jim Clay was one.

(That's Henry's daddy?)

And Grandpa Pack was one. Abe Pack and then Old Man Turner.

(What was his first name? Do you remember?)

No I don't.

(It wasn't Oscar was it?)

No, let's see now, there was another old 'un now that 'us raised over on Hungry Mountain.

(Joe Five Killer. Is he still living?)

Nope. All of 'em dead but one boy and that's old Clu they call him.

(Clu)
