

(Smoke break is on.)

(Song for 5 minutes.)

Wallace Redbone: Now we have a smoke break here for our dancers, singers to get a drink of water and smoke. So we pause for just for a few moments. (Song starts and last for about 8 minutes.) All right. The next special is Ralph Bruney requested by Velma Pewo. Wait a minute. Hold everything! (Song for 5 minutes.)

Unidentified Man: Now Wheaton (?) Redbone here has called a special on behalf of my mother and my brother in North Carolina. He is fixing to go overseas. He said, "I've got gratefulness in my heart that my mother is home. My mother was very ill. Now she's home and I'm happy for that." He said "I want to do something to repay for all of you." He said, "I want to do it through the goodness of my heart to share what blessings I have with some of my friends and relatives."

Unidentified Man: --here say this, On behalf of this young man here and Wilbur _____ Jr., and we are happy for this young man that he has done his portion for his country. So I am happy because of this young man. I've got fine words to say, but I want to thank you people for helping this young man. I want to depend on these staffs. So on behalf of this man and other (Conversation interference and could not understand rest of sentence.)

Wallace: Harold Redbone. Vivian Hamilton (Osage, Ira Hamilton's daughter).

Emmett Williams. Emmett Williams. The girl in yellow dress right there. One of you might present her over here. Maud Michoby. Mrs. Lonnie Burton. Josie Starr.

Josie Starr. Someone give this to Julia. Josie Starr on south side.

(Names are being called out and repeated by unidentified person.)

Josie Starr on the south side.

Aurelia Looking Glass.

Aurelia Looking Glass on the south side.

Martha Mendaris.

Martha Mendaris on north side.

Julia Mulkehay.

Julia Mulkehay on the south side.

Angeline Groomstead, Iola Redbone.