

After statehood, Charley's brother, John, killed him. They never did know the straight of it. John was the youngest one of the three.

John and Charley were hauling hay, hauling hay. They kept guns with them all the time. Took the guns with them wherever they went.

(Uh-huh)

I don't know they never did tell it straight. But John, his brother, the youngest one of the bunch, killed Charley. Then after statehood then why the old man John Wickcliff was well thought of.

(Uh-huh)

They went down to Tahlequah, and give up. John, Tom did. Tom used to live out there between Salina and Spavinaw, with his wife.

(Uh-huh)

(sentence not clear) Oh about nine miles, Jim Wickcliff lived there. And John Wickcliff live up on Wickcliff Prairie.

(Uh-huh)

Called Wickcliff Prairie. They were brothers. (Not clear). About five miles or something like that.

(Uh-huh)

LOCATION OF THE NINE DISTRICT COURT HOUSES

(Not clear). After that I taught school down here at Rock Springs.

(Yeah)

And he was post master. And I come in every evening and chat with him. (Not clear). (Not clear). (Not clear). He was post master.

(Not clear).

(Uh-huh)

(Not clear).

(Well I guess Stilwell has changed a whole lot in your observation