Well, when that stopped, they stopped havin' school there, they, Ed Whitington. went round and he bought out everybody that had money in there y'know. And then he tore it down __ and moved over to his place. (West of Stilwell. · I remember school I went to, they'd put pegs in there for their feet y'know, and then no back to 'em at all, that's what we had to sit

Gib: We had seats, but them kids y'know would soon whittle on their seat and then they'd all come off. (Laughter)

(End of Side A - continued on Side B)

Page 7

on.)