

So doggone it, we couldn't twist him out and we decided to smoke him out.

And you know, I got up there and kept my foot over that hole you know and they built a smudge down there you know and set the whole woods on fire. (laughter)

I'm tellin you, we got the rabbit, he fell down through there, he was just dead as a mackeral we'd probably smothered him to death. (laughter) And you talk about gettin it, we got it.
