

necks, kill her. Then she chase around other girls and kill them like that. And then after while, she chased the whole camp. And they got on horseback and they chase her. Shoot at her. And when they hit her, the arrow wouldn't go in. She's just like flint. So, she chased them. She killed all of them down there. All of them down to the camp. Mans and womans. Then the other ones are fast. They try to get away. And her sister was along. She became a bear. And she became bad and she was killing all the people. So when her brother came, he find out. And he know what happened. "I told mama to watch that girl pretty close, and she wouldn't do it, and now here you are." She became a bear and she's killed all the folks down there in the camp. And just left a few girls. They run for their lives. And they were running and her brother was in the midst, with them. They claim it was seven. And they were running. And that bear woman was getting right close to them. And this boy shoot the arrow. He shoot the arrow, just go hard as he can. And when the arrow hits the ground way over there, just about land over there. So, they're running that way until they're just about all in. They couldn't go. Then they knew that they're going to be killed.

(Mrs. Hunter: And all these five girls that was left, he'd shoot them. I don't know how it'd be. But these girls were in with this arrow, he'd just shoot them over. Trying to get them away from this bear.)

There's something that hollered over here, "Hey, come over this way." Something holler down there on the ground. It said, "Come up this way." So them kids run. They're six girls and one boy. When they run, they come over there and there was a rock. He told them, "Go around four times. Circle
