

(Granddaughter: Grandpa, you ought to tell them that story that time you was telling me--about early in the morning you were going to this spring and you heard the cow hllering-- it's a true story. Out where he lived in the mountains, and what did it do, jump into this water? Why don't you tell them that?)

(I might not have enough tape.)

(Granddaughter: It's not very long.)

(Kiowa)

(End of Tape)