

(Is there any kind of story about it?)

Oh, yeah. There way--not way back, but recently. Jesse James and Dalton Boys used to use it as a hide out.

(They did?)

Well, they had a corral there where they had horses. Underground, you know. They had a little place where they keep their horses in there. They had a cave in there. Ed Toehay told me that he used to could find a lot of bones there. Human bones. Bones buried in that, in that. Right up this. Way up there.

(Right up that draw, huh?)

Yeah. So later on you all come back. We'll, we even took pictures down there. Freeman and I. And I just want you to bring your camera down here and get some of the shots.

(Did the Indians have a name for that?)

No. Some of them don't know that it's there. Some never even seen it.
