

boys." We said, "No". We went over and sit down and went to talking to them in the swing. We told them we didn't smoke. They asked us "smoke with us." So we taken and smoked a cigarette. She give me a pack then. I took that package of cigarettes and put them in my pocket. And I carried them all the time I was in the service. I never did smoke another cigarette. Only when I was around where she was. I'd take one or two puffs off and begin to get dizzy.. I'd put it out.
(Uh-huh)

I never did smoke no more cigarettes. If I had enough sense I could had a good farm, and been living happy with plenty if I'd just took care of what I had.

(End of interview)