

themselves. They just had one boy. So they camped off to themselves and the old lady, the mother, said for the old man to make him a wheel.

Jenny: Hey, you're starting out different.

Cecil: I know. I'm just (speaks Kiowa)

Jenny: (speaks Kiowa)

Cecil: Yeah, that's right.

Jenny: And they had a little boy. (speaks Kiowa) When the rain and storm coming (more Kiowa)

Cecil: Yeah, that's right.

Jenny: (Kiowa) Now he told him not to go out. Buffalo (speaks Kiowa). Well, that's what she done--his wife. She took that little boy (more Kiowa). So she start making a rope (Kiowa) Her husband didn't know for so many weeks, I guess (speaks Kiowa) Pole go down to the earth. Just about to touch the earth. That's where they were hanging. Her husband look for them and he finally find them. (speaks Kiowa) and he had a little rain. (speaks Kiowa) He wants to save the boy. I thought of it. (more Kiowa) Jumped that little boy and knocked the wife down. (speaks Kiowa)--a witch woman got him down. (speaks Kiowa)

Cecil: Yeah, that's right.

Jenny: She took care of this little boy and told him. That old lady witch woman made a ring for him to play with. And she told him not to throw it up on the tipi.

Cecil: "Don't throw it on the tipi."

Jenny: Yeah, and somehow she was gone (speaks Kiowa)

Cecil: (speaks Kiowa)

Jenny: I wonder why she---
