

(Well. Good fiddlers too.)

Uh-huh. Good fiddlers. We lived about two miles south and two miles farther from the church house. It's been there a long time. But there isn't no store in there now. It's church house.

(Uh--Alluwe that's in Nowata county isn't it?)

Yeah.

(That's what I was thinking. Uh-huh.)

Close to line. Alluwe it's just a mile south.

(Uh-huh)

South of Alluwe.

(Yeah.)

THE LITTLE CREEK CALLED FOOL'S CREEK

They had a little creek up there they called Fool's Creek. You ever hear of it?

(Fool's Creek. No I never did hear of it?)

Well I'll tell you where it is. It's just uh--Lightning Creek and River they come down. Then there's uh--little--we got to washing. Lightning Creek was a raising. It would wash toward the river.

(Yeah)

And if the river was raising. It'd go east.

(It'd go back the other way.)

Yeah. That's how come they name it that. Fool's Creek. 'Cause it run two different ways.

TIMBER USED FOR HOMES - LOG ROLLING

(Yeah. Well. In this sawmill work here in the Chelsea area, uh--what kind of timber did they cut?)

They cut oak and elm.

(Oak and elm.)
