

Yarmie District. It used to be.

(That was Mekasukey dance ground.)

Uh-huh. Yes. And they still have that Old Hickory Stomp Dance I believe it is. It's south of Spaulding.

(No, they call that the Cedar River Tulsa. It used to be--they called it New Tulsa.)

Yes.

(Used to be Old Tulsa and New Tulsa.)

Uh-huh.

(Now it's called Cedar River Tulsa. Barney Leader is the chief there.)

Uh-huh, I see.

(In the Creek country.)

My uncle, Robert, used to be the medicine man there, before he passed away.

FATHER'S BROTHERS AND SISTERS

(Well now, now many brothers and sisters did your father have? Can you name them?)

My father's brother's and--on my father's side.

(Yes.)

Now there was Rhoda, Nora, of the girls. And there was Frank. No. I'll start with the--

(Start with the oldest.)

Robert, Paul, John Jay, and then the younger ones was Frank, George and Benjamin. I think they had a sister by the name of--my daddy's sister, older sister, was Lucy. But I don't know for sure. I just heard by bits, you know.

(Now Frank, let's see he's Tom--he had a boy named Tom, didn't he--Frank Johnson?)

Uh-h-h.

(Tom and Henry.)
