T-329-31

Adltoyi.gw. That's--aldto means gather. Cecil: Jenny: Rounding them up.4 (It meant something like that. That's all, I guess. How many of them? (I've got 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 6.) Yeah, that's all of them. Jenny: (Can you tell me some more about them some time? About what they did and that kind of thing?) Well, yeah, next time. I guess maybe. Jenny: (But not today.) Jenny: No. (I was just wondering if you knew more about them?) Jenny: I'm gonna see that old man. I know this fellow, Setaige (?), Big Tree, I know him and Cecil: Stumbling Bear. This time we're gonna sign our names like that so if--it's Jenny: supposed to be Hunting Horse and we always just use this one. So I put Jenny Hunting Horse. (That will be fine.) And that's the way he's gonna sing. I'm gonna make him. Jenny: (What's this OIO doing? Is it doing any good?) We don't know. We just get that. Jenny: I never went to their meeting. I don't know what they're Cecil: doing. Jenny: They got a paper like this. Say, by the way, if you could fish around for some of that Cecil: books, if you can. This lady that wrote that promised me faithfully to give me one of that books that--what they call the Ten Grand-My mother interpreted that book. And she promised me one. mothers.