

about him that he talked to me. I guess it's in the spirit in a dream that he talk to me. And he sang a song to me. And this is the way it goes. Wait, I'm gonna sing it in Indian and then I'll tell what it means. (sings song in Kiowa.)

(That's beautiful.)

(Interruption)

Jenny: Well, this is what it means. It means, "I'm up here in heaven, in Eternal Life." He said, "Dad and mother, keep on praying." He said, "Some day we're going to meet again." He said, "I'm up here in heaven, heavenly home, where I'm happy. Dad and Mother, keep on praying. Don't give up. Keep praying." He said, "Some day we're going to meet again."

(That's wonderful but I was wondering, would you ever sing that song at your church or to some other people?)

Jenny: Yes.

(You do?)

Jenny: I do, yes. Like when I go to church and I feel the--I don't know. That's my belief. When the prayers or maybe the preaching or the songs get so good, it just makes me feel happy. And when I think about those times, that song came to me. I get up and testify what the Lord done for me--made a way for me. I thought everything was lost but the Lord came to me and made a way for me that I'm happy now. I want to worship him. I want to be closer to him. And this is the song my boy, my son, left me. I was singing and lots of people get touched. I don't sing it all the time.

(That's a beautiful song.)

Jenny: And when someone, some family lost their loved one like children, I'll sing it for them. And that's my favorite song.
